

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Christmas comin'.

All kind of Underwear at Brown's.

A mighty lot of rainy days the past week.

Services at St. Paul's church next Sunday.

Michalon, the Hogan mule man, has an advertisement on the first page.

Mr. Trauernicht says there should be some benches in the courthouse yard. A good suggestion.

Shepherd post-office, beyond Bellevue, opened for business Monday. Mrs. Mary E. Shaner is postmistress.

Don't forget the entertainment at the Academy of music next Monday night. Something good is promised.

"Little Miss Susan" will greet you at the Academy of Music on the evening of December 16th. Particulars later.

The Gleaners will meet with Mrs. Feary, Thursday afternoon, December 4th, at 2:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present and visitors welcome.

A card from Miss Blanche Turner apprises us that she is now in San Francisco, where she will probably remain for the winter.

Thanksgiving in the valley was quiet, and Sunday-like. The banks, the post-offices, and most of the business houses closed for the day.

Hay for Sale—Pea and Millet, and Clover and Millet. Good condition. $12 a ton. Apply at once. Phone 54. JERSEYDALE FARM.

Mr. Crumb imparts the information that the Shepherd Mountain is not for sale. He is at present engaged in the manufacturing business in Chicago.

Among the transfers of real estate last week was that of the house and lot in Arcadia owned by John Allison to Frank Reichert. Consideration, $800.

A letter from F. I. Jones of Bru not informs us that he is now attending the St. Louis University studying dentistry. We wish our young friend every success.

Married—At the residence of Ed. Hartwick, Ironton, Mo., Saturday, November 29, 1913, George Hartwick and Julia Whitehead, Probate Judge O. W. Roop officiating.

Don't forget to call in at the Ironton Kandy Kitchen before buying your Christmas candy. My stock of goods and price might suit you better than you can get elsewhere.

Regular meeting of Iron Lodge, No. 107, next Monday, December 8. Election of officers. All members are urged to attend.

B. P. BURNHAM, N. G.

There will be preaching at the Ironton Baptist church next Sunday—morning and evening—by pastor Riggs. Sunday School and Young People's Meeting at the usual hours.

Arthur Huff accompanied his son, Morris, to St. Louis Monday, where the young man enlisted in the U. S. Navy. We hope to see "Pete" make good and come out with colors flying.

Union Thanksgiving services were held in the Presbyterian church last Thursday. Short talks were made by Rev. Vaughan, Rev. Mitchell and Rev. Barbee, who is at the Baptist Home.

Mrs. Chas. Tual was taken to St. Louis week for medical treatment. Word was received Monday that her condition was not so favorable and her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Baird, was summoned. Many friends hope for an early improvement.

Word comes to us that James Chilton, a farmer, living two miles below Des Arc, on Big Creek, committed suicide Tuesday morning, by shooting himself through the head with a 32 rifle. Poor health is supposed to have been the cause.

Miss Edna Osterle was called to Middlebrook Monday in answer to a message stating that her grandmother, Mrs. Christian Osterle, had sustained a stroke of apoplexy. She returned Wednesday and states her grandmother's condition is very critical.—Farmington News.

Little Augusta, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Trauernicht, underwent a surgical operation for an affection of the throat in St. Louis last Saturday. The little miss stood the ordeal bravely, and we are glad to be assured, is doing well. Her mother will probably bring her home to-morrow.

Adrain Steel of Ironton arrived here yesterday and will make this city his home. Mr. Steel has shipped his household goods and his family will arrive in a few days. He will practice law here. His office will be with A. J. Blair in the Postoffice Building.—De Soto Republican.

The trial of Charles Miller of Lester-ville in Reynolds county for the murder of Richard Mallow in September was commenced in circuit court at Centerville last Saturday. The jury returned a verdict Tuesday evening finding the defendant guilty and giving him a life sentence.

In the case of C. H. Casebolt vs. Sligo Furnace Co. et al., the State Utilities Commission has not Wednesday, December 17, 1913, as the date of its hearing, which will be held at Sligo, Dent county. The purpose of the complainant is to have the defendant railroad declared a common carrier.

STRAYED—About August 1st, from the range on Brewer's Creek, one three-year-old red steer, marked with underbit in each ear, and overbit on the right, and dewclawed. Was labeled with my name. Will give $5 for his recovery. B. M. WHITE, Doe Run, Mo.

A very interesting entertainment will be given at the Academy of Music, Monday evening, December 8th, at 8 o'clock by the Jesse L. Hudson Entertainment Company. Admission, 35 cents; reserved seats, 50 cents; children under twelve years of age, 25 cents. Seats can be reserved at Grandhomme's Kandy Kitchen.

STRAYED—During the summer, from C. K. Polk's farm on Marble Creek, two steers, marked with crop and split in right ear and underbit in the left, and labeled "C. K. Polk, Arcadia, Mo." Three years old; red. For information leading to their recovery a reasonable reward will be paid. C. K. POLK.

Mr. F. C. Kath, who has been in the banking business at Swafford, Kansas, for several years, is now located at Hutchinson, Kansas, where he has the position of cashier of The State Exchange Bank, an institution with a capital stock of $100,000. Mr. Kath writes the REGISTER that he expects to see old friends in the valley during the holidays.

Our old friend, Robert Hill, Esq., left last Wednesday for Jefferson City to spend Thanksgiving with his daughter, Mrs. H. A. Hill. A card from Mr. Hill tells us that he has had an abundance of turkey and, generally speaking, enjoyed himself very much. But he says there are too many "rebels" around the Capital and we may expect him back in Ironton soon.

Walter Hickman, aged 22 years, committed suicide at his home at Vanduser Thursday evening of last week by drinking carbolic acid. He was said to be a young man of exemplary habits and no definite reason has been assigned for his self destruction. He is survived by his young wife to whom he had been married only about 3 months.—Scott County Banner.

LOGAN—Entered into rest Monday, November 24, 1913, at 8 A. M., Martha Elizabeth Logan, dear mother of Edward, Wayne, John, Joseph and Nova Logan, and dear grandmother of Harlan Logan and Viola Atkinson (nee Logan), at the age of 75 years. Funeral from family residence, 5018 Page boulevard, Tuesday, November 26, at 2 P. M. Interment in Valhalla Cemetery.—St. Louis Republic.

A telephone message was received from Prof. B. W. Loomis Tuesday morning announcing the death of his father, George C. Loomis, at Belgrade, Mo., the night before. The deceased had been in poor health for many months and the announcement of his death came not as a surprise. He was a good man and citizen, and long prominent in Washington county. To the bereaved we extend sympathy.

Jeweler McLaughry has a watch lately found on Shepherd mountain near the place where the Confederate guns were posted at the battle of Pilot Knob. The steel in the works of the watch is nearly eaten away with rust, but the balance wheel is of gold and bright as ever. The case is of composite and blackened with long exposure. The timepiece is of English manufacture. The dial figures are completely effaced.

A. J. Langdon and Arthur Huff spent Thanksgiving at Rolla, Mo., with their sons who are attending the School of Mines. Mr. Huff tells us that when word was received in Rolla that afternoon that the School of Mines football team had defeated the Oklahoma University team in a game at Muskogee the School of Mines boys just took Rolla by storm. They paraded the streets, built bonfires, and had a most joyous time.

Last Wednesday afternoon the pupils of Arcadia Primary School excellently rendered some appropriate Thanksgiving selections, reflecting credit on themselves and teacher. Miss Nannie Ringo for many years has had charge of this department and keeps abreast of the times in this work. She certainly believes in a thorough foundation and works towards that end. Her attitude of kindness and firmness to the little ones inculcates mutual respect.

F. O. Coddling has sold his butcher business in Ironton to Henry Basler. Mr. Basler formerly conducted a meat market in Ironton, but has been in California the past three years. He is expected to arrive this week and take charge at once. The sale does not include the real estate, but Mr. Coddling will vacate the premises and lease the shop and dwelling to Basler. Mr. Coddling will spend the winter on his farm in the Flatwoods. In the spring he will build a residence on his lots in East Ironton.

George Kell, postmaster at Elvins, and Miss Myrtle Horn, of Flat River, received injuries in a motorcycle accident last Sunday afternoon, when the machine they were riding skidded and went over the edge of a culvert near the Herrington farm on the Farmington and Flat River road. Mr. Kell suffered a severe sprain of his right wrist and Miss Horn a slightly sprained ankle. Mr. Kell and Miss Horn had started for a ride to Farmington. An automobile party passing soon after the accident picked up the injured motorcycleists and took them back to their lead belt homes.—Farmington News.

Two young ladies of the valley, Misses Lucille Ringo and Floy Miller, with three other girls, were selected from thirty aspirants in a "try out" for members of the Cape Girardeau

Normal Dramatic Club, which will put on two classical plays during the school term. These young ladies are both Juniors and this extra work will entail much mental labor, but they are very fortunate in attaining this membership as they will be thoroughly drilled by talented teachers who have made this their life work. These classic plays, well rendered in elaborate costumes, will very nearly satisfy the many cultured people of Cape Girardeau.

Wm. Dewey, one of our most successful farmers, was in to see us last Wednesday. He told us that a few days before his son, Ezra, sold a cow and nine months' old calf for $92.50; he received $52.50 for the cow and $40 for the calf. In view of the dire calamities that were prophesied when the Democrats took charge of the government, Mr. Dewey thinks these are very fair prices, and is perfectly willing for things to go on as they are. Mr. Dewey made a trip to Farmington recently and bought a yearling Hereford bull from J. D. Rion, superintendent of the Stoney Island Stock Farm, paying therefor $75. He is a fine animal and his owner thinks he got a bargain.

The boys' basketball team in the Ironton High School arranged for a game with the high school team at Farmington on Thanksgiving day. Miss Shane, the principal of the school, issued an edict that the proposed game should not be played and forbade the boys participating therein. In this she was sustained by Superintendent Loomis. It seems that it is a rule of the school that no student shall participate in the athletic contests who has not attained a certain grade in his or her studies. In this respect some of the boys who wanted to take part in the Farmington game were deficient; hence the promulgation of the order that the contest should not take place. But the boys took the view that as Thanksgiving was a holiday, and there was no school that day, they were not under the teachers' charge and, hence, it was none of the teachers' business what they did that day. So, bright and early Thanksgiving morn the basketball players and rooters, a score or more in all, journeyed to Farmington. Imagine their chagrin and disappointment on arriving there to be told that the Farmington team would not meet them in contest. Some one had "put them wise" to the fact that their visitors were there without permission, and even against the protest of their teachers. The Farmington team is entirely too precise and well disciplined to risk contamination by entering into contest with such an unruly bunch. So, there was no game and the Ironton lads were mad! Nor did the passing of Friday, Saturday and Sunday mellow their anger or lessen their discontent. And when school convened Monday morning the members of the board were present to aid in pouring oil on the troubled waters. The Board sustained the teachers in the ruling that no student shall take part in the athletics who does not make a required grade in his studies. An order was issued forbidding all athletics for the next two months. After much discussion, equilibrium was to some extent restored. It is hardly accurate to say the white wings of peace hovered over the scene; but much is hoped for the future!

Thanksgiving Service.

IRONTON, MO., NOV. 27, 1913.
At a Union Meeting for Thanksgiving held in the Presbyterian church, here, to-day, Rev. J. R. A. Vaughan, of St. Louis Conference, M. E. Church, South, presented by motion, the following:

Resolved, That we, citizens of Missouri and of this Congressional District, No. 13, assembled in response to proclamations of the President of the United States and the Governor of this State, in a Thanksgiving service, respectfully petition, respectively, Hon. Walter A. Hensley, Representative from District No. 13, this State, in the Lower House of our National Congress, and the Hon. W. J. Stone and J. A. Reed, members from this State, in the Senate, of the National Congress, that they support vigorously and with all possible efficiency, legislation looking to amendment of our Federal Constitution, so that the manufacture of, and all traffic in intoxicants for beverage purposes and all kindred uses, shall be speedily and effectively prohibited in the United States and the territories belonging thereto.

The motion carried, unanimously, and the chairman of the meeting was on motion, instructed to send copies of this record and action to each of the honorable gentlemen, respectively, named in the resolution, and to the two papers published in this place.

JOEL T. MITCHELL,
Iron Mountain Presbytery, Chairman of Thanksgiving Meeting.

ELMER NEWMAN, Secretary.

I was over on the Belmont Branch last week and stopped off at Fredericksburg; business is good there; I called on the Fredericksburg Lumber Company. They are now running a store in connection with the lumber business and are selling lots of goods. My next stop was at Marquand; there are some good, up-to-date stores there. White & Co. have a department store and carry a $30,000 stock. The dry goods department is under the charge of Misses Mae and Ina Collins, formerly of Ironton. They are up-to-date salesladies. The store is fitted with glass counters. The second department is devoted to shoes—a $3,000 stock. The grocery department is in charge of Percy Matthews, a most competent man. I was taken across the street to the concrete warehouse, 30x80 feet, with basement and elevator. It was crowded with car loads of corn, hay, salt, stoves, furniture, potatoes and coffins. I called on several families among them Dr. Gale and his good wife, and Mrs. Ed White. They are sisters and fine musicians. I stopped with my relatives, H. E. Hoeman and family, and am proud to say they are among the best people in Marquand. Mr. Lett, a merchant, gave me a warm welcome; also, the banker and postmaster, whom I've known for some time. I wound up my visit by calling on my old friend, Jack Rhodes, the best hotel man on the road. He was a brave Union soldier and never known to run in battle. I stopped at Farmington on my way home and took Thanksgiving dinner with my daughter, Mrs. Geo. W. Morris. I attended Thanksgiving service at the Baptist church; sermon by Dr. Dubose of the Presbyterian church. It was fine. The Baptists are holding a revival meeting there and up to the time I was there there were 46 conversions. The singing was fine; I notice a Piedmont school girl, Miss Nettie Bunyard, in the choir. The solo by Mrs. Pearl Barrow, "Where Will You Spend Eternity?" was extra good and had a fine effect. Miss Ethel Morris performed at the piano. My next stop was at Bismarck. After Thanksgiving supper, including turkey, etc., with C. H. Lucy and family we attended the M. E. revival going on there, conducted by Evangelist Adams and his wife, who is certainly a fine singer. I have since learned they are Virginians; had I known it when I was there I surely would have shaken their hands. At Bismarck I called on my dear friend, Virginia Hunt, who is very sick. I hope and pray the good Lord will spare her a while longer.

Miss Etta Keathley last week received a box of fine oranges from her relatives in Florida.

T. P. Fitz and wife will go to Lillbourn, Mo., Friday, where they will visit their son, W. J. Fitz, and family, for a week or ten days.

Johnnie Johnson was taken back to St. Louis Friday, where he had to undergo a second operation. Dr. F. F. Farr accompanied him.

The entertainment given by the pupils of the public school Thanksgiving night was a great success. The programme is too lengthy to give here, but all did well. I must take space to mention the recitation by Morris McKee, the five-year-old daughter of Prof. McKee. She is a remarkable child for her age. She memorizes very difficult pieces, and delivers them in a clear, distinct voice to a full audience. She has the talent to make a fine reader.

Rev. Myers, the M. E. Minister, assisted by Rev. W. W. Strother, will conduct a revival here this week. They are hoping for good results and we should attend and assist them in the work.

The young people have organized an Epworth League and have a good number to begin with. We are glad to see this good work started in our town. ISAAC.

The home of good clothing is in the east. Brown has a fine lot of Clothing, just in, made for him in the east.

Annapolis News.

Rating the most of the past week and continues to rain. Creeks are flushed and foot logs washed away.

Charles Shores of St. Louis is visiting old-time friends in Annapolis and Reynolds county. He used to make his home in Lone Hollow.

We had church most every night the past week. Some fights, but no names reported.

A good many people in town Saturday; pay-day for some of the mills. The pay-rolls are small in comparison with what they used to be years ago.

John T. Webb has returned from Centerville. He reports circuit court progressing slowly; but few cases disposed of; Charles Loyd, formerly of Annapolis, but now of near Bunker, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of disturbing the peace and was fined $15 and costs, which he paid.

John R. Dobbs and Castle want to sell out their saw mill.

Wm. Kitchell lost a horse this week; death was occasioned by a snake bite inflicted last August.

Edna Henson, step-daughter of Esquire Kitchell, has suffered greatly with rheumatism the past week, but is some better now.

Considerable 'possum and coon hunting. Furs are high in price.

The writer was sorry to hear of the death of his old playmates, Louis Higley and conductor Evans.

Tie and lumber inspectors seem to be scarce.

Henry Tucker of Des Arc has bought the Buxton farm, near here. He and Buxton are about to get into a law suit over some interest due on money loaned on the farm.

Robert Fancher is now running Lou T. Webb's barber shop and doing well. The road overseer, William Sutton, certainly has overlooked the streets of Annapolis, and they are in a horrible condition.

Dickey Kitchell had a fine young hog killed by the cars a few nights ago.

Sam Culton has not yet received the money for a mule killed on the railroad, near Sabula, last August. A settlement has been made, though, and he is expecting a voucher every day.

James Shield, who had his finger cut off a few weeks ago, has about recovered and is loading lumber again. He is nearly eighty years of age and a veteran of the civil war.

John O. Adams of near Vulcan is attending the sanctified meeting in Annapolis.

Chas. Stamey, an old Iron county boy who has been in Oregon and Montana for the past six years, is a visitor to Annapolis to-day. He says he is satisfied to remain in this county. His mother will buy him a farm, near Annapolis.

Thos. P. Fitz is in town selling meat and flour. He reports business good.

John Farris is in town this morning looking after the tie business and to see his children, who are at A. Lot's.

Finest and largest stock of Misses' and Ladies' Coats now on sale at Lopez Store Co.

A Double Wedding.

A most delightful day was spent last Sunday at Goodwater, the occasion being the marriage of Mr. Murphy Campbell to Viola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Mayberry; also Mr. Fred Vest and Salome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Crocker.

The ceremony was public, being performed by Rev. Staten, at the Goodwater church.

Both brides were dressed in white and looked as sweet as could be, while the young men were free from embarrassment and looked very manly, indeed.

The immediate family retired to the home of Mr. Mayberry and partook of a fine dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left on Monday for their home at Hopewell.

About 60 guests took dinner at Mr. Crocker's, and there was plenty for all. Mr. and Mrs. Vest will go to house keeping soon near F. M. Crocker's mill, where Mr. Vest has employment.

It has seldom been our lot to spend a happier day than Sunday. We wish these dear young people all the happiness and enjoyment possible.
